PRAKALPA-2026

Recognizing Research Talent

Management Interns' International Conclave

Guidelines

Eligibility

- There can be up to two students from the same institution or department who have completed their Summer Internship in the AY-2025-26.
- The Students must have the signed Institutional Authorization Letter.

Presentation Rounds

- Round 1: A 7-minute PowerPoint presentation covering Objectives, Methodology, and Major Findings.
- Final Round: A 15-minute presentation, followed by Q&A, covering Objectives, Methodology, Data Analysis, Findings, Recommendations, and Conclusions.

Judging and Evaluation

- An expert panel will assess originality, clarity of Research Methodology, Depth of analysis, Presentation effectiveness (clarity, time management, and communication), and responsiveness in Q&A. All jury decisions are final.

General Instructions

- Submissions must have institutional endorsement. Presentations should be professional, well-researched, and time-compliant, with formal attire required for all participants. Adhere to all submission deadlines.

Travel and Hospitality

- Participants are required to make their own travel arrangements.
- Local hospitality will be provided by the host as per the event schedule.
- National Participants (From Outside Odisha) may opt for online track.
- International Participants will present online.

Code of Conduct

- All participants must uphold academic integrity and ethical standards. Plagiarism or unethical behaviour will result in disqualification. Courteous behaviour toward all involved parties is mandatory.

PRAKALPA-2026
Management Interns' International Conclave
Research Synopsis Submission Template

A. Participant Details

Name of the Institution
Name of the Participant(s)
Programme & Semester
Department
Email ID
Mobile Number
Title of the Research Study

B. Synopsis Content

No.	Section	What to Include (in brief)
1	Research Objectives	Major objectives of the study. (Max. Words 100)
2	Research Methodology	Research design, data sources, sampling, sample size, data collection, analytical tools. (Max. Words 250)
3	Data Analysis	Techniques/software used; key tables, graphs or figures. (Max. Words 150)
4	Major Findings	Key outcomes based on the analysis. (Max. Words 150)
5	Recommendations	Practical implications and suggestions. (Max. Words 150)
6	Conclusion	Overall outcomes, Significance & Contribution. (Max. Words 100)
7	References	APA 7th Edition. (Max. Words 100)

C. Declaration

I/We hereby declare that the submitted research synopsis is original and has been prepared in accordance with the academic guidelines of PRAKALPA-2026. The work is free from plagiarism, and all sources of information have been duly acknowledged.

Signature(s): _____ Date: _____

D. Submission and Formatting Guidelines

Maximum length	1,000 words	Alignment	Justified
Font	Times New Roman	Page Numbers	Bottom centre
Title	14 pt, Bold, Centered	File format	.doc or .docx
Headings	12 pt, Bold	Line spacing	1.15
Body text	12 pt, Regular	Margins	1 inch on all sides
Deadline:- 9th November 2026

Important: All tables, graphs, images and figures must be numbered, labelled and cited sequentially, with captions.